

True American.

THE CITIZENS' BANK still continues to pay interest on deposits. D. MOODY.

Safe at Home.

On Friday last—accompanied by our wife—we started on a visit to the home of her childhood—Waynesburg, Green County, Pa. Waynesburg is situated 22 miles south of Washington, and although not so easy of access, there being no river or rail roads passing through it, yet one is amply compensated for the slight inconvenience by the beauty of its scenery, and the intelligence and hospitality of its inhabitants. Within the last few years they have erected a Court House and other public buildings which would do honor to any of our second class cities. We were informed that their College is in a very healthy and flourishing condition, with an excellent Library and superior philosophical apparatus.

By the application of "Horse power," we were landed at home on last evening, and are again pleasantly seated in our sanctum. By a free interchange of views with gentlemen in Waynesburg and Washington, we were confirmed in our convictions that the temporary triumph of the Pro-Slavery Democracy, in that region, was the result of indiscretion upon the part of the opponents of the National Administration. When the true issue is presented next Fall, Green, Washington, and Pennsylvania will go in favor of American Freedom, and in opposition to African Slavery and political Romanism, then shall we be proud of the record that we as a Pennsylvania by birth and by education.

Six horses escaped from their owners in Monongahela county, Va., on Saturday night last, taking six slaves with them. The horses and one of the slaves were captured on Sabbath, in Green Co., Pa. The other five were still running at large on Monday when we left Waynesburg. As the horses are secured we hope the property they purloined will be landed safely in Canada, and the horses be held to a strict account.

THIEVES ABOUT.—On Saturday night, some persons not having the fear of the printer before their eyes, entered the house of the editor of the Herald, and carried away various articles of clothing, jewelry, &c. They then proceeded to the dwelling of Mr. B. P. Drennen, and robbed it of a considerable amount of money, (part of which was a Sabbath School collection,) and also some jewelry and other articles. The houses of Mr. Frank Owensley, John Nash, and R. D. Morrison, were visited the same night, and treated in a similar way. No clue to the perpetrators has yet been found.

Blackwood's Magazine for October is on our table. This magazine is particularly desirable at this time, on account of its excellent articles upon the war between the Allies and Russia. The contents of this number are, "North and the Noctes," Zaidie. The Baltic in 1855, in which the condition of the Baltic coast, at this time is compared with its condition at the commencement of the war; "The story of the campaign" &c.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—Any one Review (Edinburgh, North British, Westminster, and London), or Blackwood $3 a year. Blackwood and one Review or any two reviews $5. The four Reviews and Blackwood $10. Four copies to one address $30. The present is a favorable time to subscribe.

Address L. Scott & Co., Publishers, 54 Gold Street, corner of Fulton, New York.

The Deserted Wife, by Emma D. E. N. Southworth, Philadelphia, T. B. Peterson, 586 pages, price $1.25. That Mrs. Southworth is a lady of genius, and that the productions of her pen possess a rare fascination, none who have read her will deny. "The Deserted Wife," is a fiction of great power and interest, yet we would not recommend it to very young persons. There are some doctrines we cannot endorse—but we must say that in attractiveness we have seldom seen its equal.

We have received the November No. of Arthur's Home Magazine. We know of no magazine which we can more cordially recommend to youthful readers, than Arthur's. Its contents are interesting, and its moral teachings unexceptionable.

Peterson's Magazine for November is a splendid number. The engraving, "The Woodland Sleeper," is almost worth the price of the book, and the contents are even more than usually interesting. See prospectus for 1856 in another column.

Godey's Lady's Book for November is on our table. Godey publishes the star magazine, among fashionable periodicals. See prospectus for 1856 in another column.

In the paper of this day is to be found the advertisement of Mr. F. Guter-mann, to which we direct special attention. Mr. G. sells remarkably cheap. Give him a call.

GRAND REPUBLICAN JUBILEE!

The State Central Committee, after consultation with friends from various parts of the State, have resolved to hold the GRAND REPUBLICAN CELEBRATION in honor of our Glorious Victory in Ohio. At Columbus, on Wednesday, November 14th.

Letters of invitation have been sent to Hon. CHAS. SUMNER, Hon. WM. H. SEWARD, and other distinguished Republican orators, who are confidently expected to be present on that occasion. The several county committees of the State are requested to take immediate action to secure the attendance of as many citizens from their several counties as possible. Our triumph is most complete and overwhelming, and is the dawn of a better day for the people of Ohio. It is worthy of this special commemoration.

The details of this celebration will be given to the public as soon as they are arranged. The Ohio Delegation in Congress, the Governor and Lieut. Governor elect, and other officers of State who have been so triumphantly chosen by the people, are expected to be present. It will be the great jubilee of freedom. Let the freemen of Ohio come together on this most auspicious event.

By order W. B. THALL, Sec'y.

Why should I Give?

Where God is forgotten, it is pitiful to see how riches harden the heart of him who gains them. Sometimes the man who was liberal while he was poor, becomes niggardly as he becomes wealthy. The tendency of gain is to nourish selfishness if the hand that bestows it is overlooked, and the thirst of selfishness can never be shaken. The reservoir of the coactions never overflows. Recognizing no obligation he yields to no claim. A man of this sort once said:—"Others never give to me, why should I give to others?" Infatuated man! is there none that ever gives to thee? What hast thou that thou hast not received? Who gave thee reason, life, success? Who prospered thy plans? Who gave thee power to get wealth? Who has warded off from thee a thousand calamities which have overtaken thy fellows? And art thou indebted to none—has none a right to thy bounty? Wilt thou rob God? Shall he have no share of what is his own?

DIFFICULTIES IN THE WAR TO BE FEARED FROM NAPOLEON.—The prime difficulty in calculating the future of the present European war is not the uncertainty of the German powers, nor the doubtful position of the new Czar, nor the instability of administrations in England, nor the questioned ability of the Allies to take Sebastopol; but it is the inscrutable purpose and way of Napoleon III. He is embarrassed by no parliamentary opposition or commissions of inquiry. He has an army five times larger than that of England, and can make new levies at pleasure, while England finds it impossible to keep her present ranks full. As the remarkable success of his late popular loan demonstrates, he can raise money to any extent required. He has the advantage of all the moral power, of the superiority of the French military genius as demonstrated in the present Crimean campaign. For all the purposes of the existing war, or of any war, he is far more necessary to England than England to him.—New York Courier and Enquirer.

A Few More American Victories.

Huntingdon County is American to the core, electing the whole county ticket by six or seven hundred majority. Dr. Win-trode, a true blue American, is the Assemblyman.

Armstrong County gives a majority of from four to seven hundred for the whole American ticket. Phelps, the American candidate for Assembly, received the largest vote.

Indiana County rolls up a large majority for the American ticket. Robert B. Morehead is elected to the Legislature.

Somerset elects the American ticket by a small majority. Jonas Augustine is the Assemblyman.

Mercer County elects the entire people's ticket, and gives Nicholson a small majority.—Passmore Williamson had 400 votes.

Lawrence County gives the American and Peoples ticket from six to eight hundred majority, and secures the election of Messrs. M'Combs, Crawford and Imbrie, Americans, to the lower branch of the Legislature.

Juniata County gives Dr. Crawford, American, about seven hundred majority, and secures his election to the Legislature.

LEBANON COUNTY.—The whole American ticket is elected in this county. Dauphin and Lebanon stand side by side upon the American Platform.—and both counties will be represented in the General Assembly by sound American Legislators.

Butler County gives from three to four hundred majority for the American ticket. In the district, the American candidates for the Legislature, M'Combs, Imbrie, and Crawford, have about one thousand majority.

An amiable young lady, a teacher in the Cambridge Mass. Grammar School, but just received information of a bequest of $70,000 from a rejected suitor of hers recently deceased, in Paris, Brazil.

Still Greater Attractions!

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1856.

FIFTY-SECOND VOLUME! THE PIONEER MAGAZINE!

Especially devoted to the wants of the Ladies of America.

IF this Magazine is taken in a house, no other is wanted, as it comprises all that could be obtained by taking three other Magazines.

NEW FEATURE FOR 1856.—A new and very interesting story will be commenced in January, by Marion Harland, author of "Alone," and "Hidden Path," two novels that have created an immense sensation in the literary world. Also, Miss Virginia P. Townsend will commence in February a new and interesting story, which will strongly interest the readers of the Book.

Stories by an English authoress. How to make Wax Flowers and Fruits.—With engravings.

The nurse and the nursery. How to make a Bonnet. Troubles of an English housekeeper. The art of Sketching Flowers from nature. With engravings. To be copied by the learner on paper to be colored.

Maternal counsels to a Daughter. Designed to aid her in the care of her health, the improvement of her mind, and the cultivation of her heart.

New style of illuminating windows and lamp shades, with engravings.

Poetry and history of Finger Rings, illustrated. Shows for the ladies, and where they come from, with engravings.

Modelling in Leather, with engravings.

This is only giving an idea of our intentions for 1856. New designs of interest to the ladies are springing up every day, we shall avail ourselves of anything that will interest them. In fact, Godey's Lady's Book, will possess the interest of any other three magazines.

In addition to the above will be continued in each No. Godey's splendid Steel engravings.

One hundred pages of reading, and subscribers Godey's challenge Fashion Plates. In this is as in every other department we defy rivalry or imitation.

Embroidery patterns. Any quantity of them at low prices.

Model Cakes.

PITTSBURGH ADVERTISEMENTS.

I am prepared to recommend your Pills.

JOLIET, Will Co. Ill., Feb. 25, '54.

Mr. R. E. SELLERS.—When I resided in Pittsburgh, I was cured of an attack of Liver complaint, which had preyed upon my system for eight years, and reduced me so much that I was compelled to quit work.

During the time of my suffering, I had the advice of several physicians, but their treatment failed to accomplish a cure. A friend recommended the use of your Liver Pills, and after using two boxes of them I found myself entirely cured. Whilst suffering from Liver Complaint, I was also afflicted with the Piles, which I never felt afterwards. As my wife and eldest son are now very much afflicted with a deranged state of the Liver, I am very anxious to have you make an agency for the sale of your Liver Pills at this place.

After the cure of my own disease, I am prepared to recommend your Pills, and very many persons in this section would freely try them if they had a chance.

Yours respectfully, A. SARVER.

To THE PUBLIC.—The original, only true and genuine Liver Pills are prepared by R. E. SELLERS, and have his name in black wax upon the lid of each box, & his signature on the outside wrapper—all others are counterfeits, or base imitations. R. E. SELLERS, & Co., Pro's.

And for sale by Henning & Melvin.
